

People v. Brock, No. 99PDJ068, 12/07/1999. Attorney Regulation.

The Presiding Disciplinary Judge accepted the parties' Conditional Admission of Misconduct and suspended Respondent, Kenneth F. Brock, from the practice of law for a period of one year and one day subject to certain conditions. Respondent failed to communicate with two clients regarding the status of their retainer refunds in violation of Colo. RPC 1.4(a), he failed to segregate two clients' retainers in a trust account in violation of Colo. RPC 1.15(a), he failed to timely refund three clients' unearned retainers in violation of Colo. RPC 1.16(d), he negligently converted three clients' retainers in violation of Colo. RPC 8.4(c), he neglected the legal services he was to perform for one client in violation of Colo. RPC 1.3, he charged and collected payment for the cost of legal work arising from his own error in failing to timely file a pleading in violation of Colo. RPC 1.5(a). Respondent was ordered to pay the costs of the disciplinary proceedings.